Decoding the Activation Codes!

The new registration process includes an activation code to verify your identity.

Social Security

Tell us if you requested an activation code

- This code is different from the security code you just verified.
- Activation codes may be received by text, voice, postal mail, or at an office.

Did you receive an activation code?
This code may begin with an A (Example: A-12345678) or a number (Example: 12345678).

You can choose to receive your code by text, phone call, or mail.

For extra security, we will mail the Activation Code to your home address.

Thank you for your information.
Because you're adding extra security, you'll receive step-by-step instructions in the mail in 5 to 10 business days.

What happens now?

In 5 to 10 business days:

- You will receive a letter in the mail with an upgrade code and step-by-step instructions for adding your extra security.
- In the meantime, you can still use your online account.
