Old Age, Disability, and Survivors

Regulatory Framework

First law: 1956 (social security), implemented in 1957.

Current law: 1982 (social security), with 2005 amendment.

Type of program: Social insurance system.

Coverage

Public- and private-sector employees older than age 16.

Voluntary coverage for self-employed persons, workers who were previously covered by the program, clergy, and employers.

Exclusions: Seasonal agricultural workers, armed forces personnel, and household workers.

Noncontributory system for war victims who have never contributed to the social insurance system but who have performed services for the country, and other groups, including needy persons, miners, and public servants.

Source of Funds

Insured person: 4% of covered earnings. Voluntary contributions are either 10% of declared earnings (old-age, disability, and survivor benefits and dependent supplements) or 18.25% of declared earnings (old-age, disability, and survivor benefits and dependent supplements; sickness and maternity benefits; and family allowances).

The minimum earnings for contribution calculation purposes are equal to the minimum wage.

The legal monthly minimum wage ranges from 1,573.13 to 3,587.54 cordobas, according to 9 economic sectors.

The maximum earnings for contribution calculation purposes are 37,518 cordobas.

The insured's contributions also finance family allowances.

Self-employed person: 10% of declared earnings for old-age, disability, and survivor benefits and dependent supplements; 18.25% of declared earnings for old-age, disability, and survivor benefits and dependent supplements, sickness and maternity benefits, and family allowances.

The minimum earnings for contribution calculation purposes are equal to the minimum wage.

The legal monthly minimum wage ranges from 1,573.13 to 3,587.54 cordobas, according to 9 economic sectors.

The maximum earnings for contribution calculation purposes are 37,518 cordobas.

Employer: 6% of covered payroll.

The minimum earnings for contribution calculation purposes are equal to the minimum wage.

The legal monthly minimum wage ranges from 1,573.13 to 3,587.54 cordobas, according to 9 economic sectors.

The maximum earnings for contribution calculation purposes are 37,518 cordobas.

The employer's contributions also finance family allowances.

Government: Subsidizes the costs of benefits for voluntarily covered self-employed persons.

The Nicaraguan Institute of Social Security finances any deficit for the provision of war pensions and special pensions (see source of funds under Work Injury, below).

Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension: Age 60 with at least 750 weeks of contributions. Qualifying conditions are reduced for those who joined the social insurance system after age 45, with contributions required for half the number of weeks from the date coverage began until the pensionable age, with at least 250 weeks of contributions.

Age 55 for miners and those in arduous work with at least 15 years of contributions. Age 55 for teachers with at least 1500 weeks of contributions (men) or 750 weeks of contributions (women).

Deferred pension: The pension may be deferred until age 65.

Constant-attendance allowance: Paid if the insured requires the constant attendance of others to perform daily functions.

Dependent's supplement: Paid for a wife or disabled husband, children younger than age 15 (age 21 if student, no limit if disabled), and dependent relatives older than age 60 or disabled.

A working pensioner may receive a pension and a salary but must pay contributions to the program.

Old-age pensions are not payable abroad.

Disability pension: The insured must have at least 150 weeks of contributions in the last 6 years and be assessed with a loss of at least 67% of earning capacity (total disability) or 50% to 66% of earning capacity (partial disability).

Constant-attendance allowance: Paid if the insured requires the constant attendance of others to perform daily functions.

Dependent's supplement: Paid for a wife or disabled husband, children younger than age 15 (age 21 if student, no limit if disabled), and dependent relatives older than age 60 or disabled.

The disability pension is replaced by the old-age pension at age 60. If the insured is ineligible for the old-age pension, a partial disability pension is increased to the value of the total disability benefit at age 60 on the condition that the beneficiary retires from all gainful employment.

The assessed loss of earning capacity is reviewed every 3 years.

Disability pensions are not payable abroad.

Survivor pension: The deceased received or was entitled to receive an old-age or disability pension.

Eligible survivors include a widow or a dependent, disabled widower, orphans younger than age 15 (age 21 if a student, no limit if disabled), and, in the absence of other survivors, other dependent relatives older than age 60 or disabled.

The widow(er)'s pension ceases on remarriage or cohabitation and a lump sum is paid.

Survivor pensions are not payable abroad.

Funeral grant: The deceased had at least 4 weeks of contributions in the 26 weeks before death.

Noncontributory pension: Special pensions are paid to certain war victims and other groups, including needy persons, miners, and public servants.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension: The pension is 40% of the insured's average earnings (45% if average earnings are less than twice the minimum wage) plus 1.365% (1.59% if average earnings are less than twice the minimum wage) for each additional 50-week period of contributions exceeding 150 weeks.

The insured's average earnings are equal to the average of the insured's last 250 weeks of contributions or the 250 weeks before the last 250 weeks if earnings (whichever were greater) multiplied by 4.08.

For insured persons with at least 1,000 weeks of contributions but less than 1,250 weeks of contributions, the insured's average earnings may be calculated based on the average of the insured's last 200 weeks of contributions multiplied by 4.08; with at least 1,250 weeks of contributions, the average of the last 150 weeks of contributions multiplied by 4.08.

Deferred pension: The pension is increased by 1% for each 50 week-period of contributions after age 60, up to 5%.

The maximum monthly old-age pension is 80% of average earnings if the insured's average earnings are more than twice the minimum wage; 100% if the insured's average earnings are less than twice the minimum wage.

Constant-attendance allowance: 20% of the total disability pension is paid.

Dependent's supplement: 15% of the old-age pension is paid for a wife or disabled husband; 10% for each child younger than age 15 (age 21 if student, no limit if disabled); and 10% for dependent relatives older than age 60 or disabled.

If the dependent's supplement is paid, the maximum monthly pension including dependent's supplement is 100% of the insured's base salary or US$1,500 (whichever is less).

Schedule of payments: Benefits are paid monthly, with an additional payment made each Christmas.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted periodically according to changes in wages, depending on national economic conditions.

Noncontributory pension: War victims' pensions and special pensions are provided.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension: The pension is 40% of the insured's average earnings (45% if average earnings are less than twice the minimum wage) plus 1.365% (1.59% if average earnings are less than twice the minimum wage) for each additional 50-week period of contributions exceeding 150 weeks.

The insured's average earnings are equal to the average of the insured's last 150 weeks of contributions multiplied by 4.08.

If the insured has a spouse and children, the total disability pension must not be less than 50% of the insured's average earnings.

Constant-attendance allowance: 20% of the total disability pension is paid.

Dependent's supplement (total disability): 15% of the old-age pension is paid for a wife or disabled husband; 10% for each child younger than age 15 (age 21 if a student, no limit if disabled); and 10% for dependent relatives older than age 60 or disabled.

Partial disability: 50% of the total disability pension is paid.

The maximum partial disability pension must be higher than 33% but less than 50% of the minimum wage in the insured's occupation.

The legal monthly minimum wage ranges from 1,573.13 to 3,587.54 cordobas, according to 9 economic sectors.

Schedule of payments: Benefits are paid monthly, with an additional payment made each Christmas.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted periodically according to changes in wages, depending on national economic conditions.

Noncontributory pension: War victims' pensions and special pensions are provided for total and partial disability.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension: 50% of the deceased's pension is paid to a widow aged 45 or older or disabled or to a widower aged 60 or older or dependent and disabled. A pension is paid to a widow younger than age 45 for a limited period of 2 years or for as long as she is caring for a child receiving an orphan's pension.

Remarriage and cohabitation settlement: A lump sum of 12 months of pension is paid.

Orphan's pension: Each eligible orphan receives 25% of the deceased's pension; 50% for a full orphan.

The maximum survivor pension for a widow(er) with two or more children must not exceed 100% of the deceased's pension.

Dependent relatives' pension (in the absence of other eligible survivors): 50% of the deceased's pension is paid to a dependent relative older than age 60 or disabled.

Funeral grant: The cost of the funeral or 50% of the deceased's monthly wage is paid.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted periodically for wage changes, depending on national economic conditions.

Noncontributory pension: War victims' pensions and special pensions are provided for spouses, orphans, and dependent parents.
