Regulatory Framework

First laws: 1898 (old-age pension), 1911 (widow's pension), 1924 (blind person's pension), and 1936 (disability pension).

Current law: 1964 (social security), implemented in 1965.

Type of program: Universal and social assistance system.

Note: All net benefits reflect the applied primary tax rate.

Coverage

Legal residents of New Zealand.

Source of Funds

Insured person: None.

Self-employed person: None.

Employer: None.

Government: The total cost is financed from general revenues.

Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension (New Zealand superannuation): Age 65 with at least 10 years of residency and physical presence in New Zealand since age 20, including at least five years after age 50, and must be a resident on the date of application. There is no income or asset test (except for pensioners who choose to include an unqualified partner in their pension).

The pension is payable abroad for up to 26 weeks if the beneficiary is not abroad for more than 30 weeks; may be extended beyond 26 weeks according to the length of residence in New Zealand, reciprocal agreements, and domestic legislation.

Old-age assistance benefits (means tested): Other assistance may be paid to old-age pensioners.

Disability pension (supported living payment, income tested): Citizens or permanent residents aged 16 or older with at least two years of residency who are assessed with a limited capacity for work (less than 15 hours a week for more than two year) due to a serious disability or mental health condition or are caring for a person who would otherwise need professional care.

The disability pension (supported living payment) may be payable abroad temporarily in certain circumstances.

Disability assistance benefits (means tested): Other assistance may be paid to disability pensioners.

Survivor pension (jobseeker support): Paid to a widow(er) with no children or whose youngest child is aged 14 or older. Must be available for full-time or part-time work and be a citizen or permanent resident aged 19 or older with at least two years of residency.

Survivor pension (sole parent support): Paid to a widow(er) whose youngest child is younger than age 14. Must prepare for work (if the youngest child is younger than age 5) or seek part-time work of at least 15 hours a week (if the youngest child is aged 5 to 13). Must be a citizen or permanent resident aged 19 or older with at least two years of residency.

Orphan's benefit (income tested): Paid to the primary caregiver of an orphan younger than age 18 whose biological or adoptive parents are dead, cannot be found, or are incapable of caring for the child due to a serious long-term disability. The caregiver must be aged 18 or older and expect to care for the child for at least 12 months. The child must be a resident and physically present in New Zealand; the caregiver must be a resident and continuously physically present in New Zealand for at least 12 months.

Funeral grant: May be paid to assist with funeral expenses. There is an income and asset test based on the deceased's circumstances before death.

Survivor assistance benefits (means tested): Other assistance may be paid to survivors.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age pension (New Zealand superannuation): NZ$366.94 (net) a week is paid for a single person living alone, NZ$338.71 (net) if sharing accommodation, or NZ$564.52 (net) for a married, civil-union, or de facto couple living together where both partners qualify for the pension.

The pension may be reduced by one dollar for each dollar received if the beneficiary is receiving a benefit or pension from an overseas government.

A pensioner with a spouse or partner who does not qualify for the pension may receive the married rate (NZ$282.26 (net) a week) with no income test (the partner receives no payment). If the pensioner chooses to include a partner who does not qualify in the calculation of the pension, up to NZ$536.54 (net) a week is paid, subject to an income test (benefits are reduced by NZ$0.70 for each dollar of joint income above NZ$5,200 (gross) a year).

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted annually on April 1, according to changes in the consumer price index for the previous year, with a further adjustment based on the net average ordinary time weekly wage. The net average ordinary time weekly wage is determined by the quarterly employment survey published by Statistics New Zealand.

Old-age assistance benefits (means tested): An accommodation supplement, a disability allowance, a special needs grant, and other benefits may be paid.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension (supported living payment, income tested): Up to NZ$211.46 (net) a week is paid for a single person aged 16 or 17; NZ$261.31 (net) for a single person aged 18 or older; NZ$217.75 (net) for each member of a married, civil-union, or de facto couple, with or without children; NZ$343.27 (net) for a single person with children.

Income test: The benefit is reduced by NZ$0.30 for each dollar of gross earned income above NZ$5,200 a year and by NZ$0.70 for each dollar of gross earned income above NZ$10,400. The personal earnings of totally blind persons are exempt.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted annually on April 1, according to changes in the consumer price index for the previous calendar year.

Disability assistance benefits (means tested): An accommodation supplement, a family tax credit, an advance payment of benefit, a training incentive allowance, transition-to-work assistance, a disability allowance, a temporary additional benefit, a special needs grant, and other benefits may be paid.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension (jobseeker support): NZ$209.06 (net) a week is paid (NZ$217.75 (net) a week for persons who began receiving a widow's benefit or domestic purposes benefit for widowers before July 15, 2013).

Survivor pension (sole parent support): NZ$299.45 (net) a week is paid.

Orphan's benefit (income tested): Up to NZ$203.42 (net) a week is paid, according to age, for each orphan younger than age 18 (not taxable).

Income test: The benefit is reduced by one dollar for each dollar of unearned income the child receives above 50% of the basic annual orphan's benefit rate (up to NZ$203.42 (net) a week). (The caregiver's income is not taken into account.)

Funeral grant: Up to NZ$1,998.57 is paid to the surviving spouse, partner, or dependent child for funeral costs (not taxable but income and asset tested).

Income test: The survivor pensions (jobseeker support and sole parent support) are reduced by NZ$0.30 for each dollar of gross earned income above NZ$5,200 a year and by NZ$0.70 for each dollar of gross earned income above NZ$10,400.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted annually on April 1, according to changes in the consumer price index for the previous calendar year.

Survivor assistance benefits (means tested): An accommodation supplement, an advance payment of benefit, a training incentive allowance, transition-to-work assistance, a disability allowance, a special needs grant, and other benefits may be paid.

Sickness and Maternity

Regulatory Framework

First law: 1938.

Current laws: 1964 (social security), implemented in 1965.

Type of program: Universal and social assistance system.

Coverage

Cash sickness benefits (jobseeker support): Citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand aged 18 or older (aged 19 or older with a dependent child) with at least two years of continuous residency.

Cash maternity benefits (jobseeker support): Single female citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand aged 18 or older (aged 19 or older with a dependent child) with at least two years of continuous residency.

Paid parental leave: Female employees or adoptive parents who are legally resident in New Zealand, according to employment and self-employment history. Partial or full entitlement is transferable to a qualifying spouse or partner.

Medical benefits: Legal residents of New Zealand and some other persons according to the 2012 Health and Disability Services Eligibility Direction (such as beneficiaries under reciprocal agreements, refugees, and suspected victims of human trafficking). No residency requirement for subsidized treatment for accidents under the Accident Compensation Corporation.

Source of Funds

Insured person: None.

Self-employed person: None.

Employer: None.

Government: The total cost is financed from general revenues.

Qualifying Conditions

Cash sickness and maternity benefits (jobseeker support, income tested): Must have stopped working, have reduced hours and income, or be unemployed or working part-time and be unable to perform full-time work due to sickness, injury, pregnancy, or disability.

For persons with less than two years of residency, a benefit may be paid in cases of hardship. For nonpermanent residents, an income- and asset-tested emergency benefit may be paid in cases of hardship.

Paid parental leave: Must have been working for the same employer for at least six months before the expected date of childbirth or the adoption of a child younger than age 5 and have worked for an average of at least 10 hours a week, including at least one hour a week or 40 hours a month. Self-employed persons must have been employed for at least six months and have worked an average of at least 10 hours a week before the expected date of childbirth or intended adoption.

Medical benefits: Must have resided or have a stated intent to remain in New Zealand for at least two years. There is no income test.

Sickness and Maternity Benefits

Sickness benefit (jobseeker support): Up to NZ$209.06 (net) a week is paid if aged 25 or older, single, and with no children; NZ$174.21 (net) if aged 20 to 24, or if aged 18 or 19 and living away from home; NZ$139.37 (net) if aged 18 or 19 and living with a parent.

Up to NZ$299.45 (net) a week is paid for a single beneficiary with children; up to NZ$174.21 (net) for each member of a married or civil-union couple with or without children.

The benefit is paid after a waiting period of up to two weeks, depending on previous income.

There is no limit on the period of eligibility for the sickness benefit (jobseeker support) but the beneficiary must reapply every 52 weeks. A medical professional must periodically assess the illness.

Income test: The benefit is reduced by NZ$0.70 for each dollar of gross earned income exceeding NZ$80 a week.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted annually on April 1, according to changes in the consumer price index for the previous calendar year.

Maternity benefit (jobseeker support): May be paid to a single pregnant woman at the sickness benefit rate (see above) after the 26th week of pregnancy (or earlier if the woman is unable to work due to pregnancy complications, an illness, or disability). Payment may continue for up to 13 weeks after childbirth.

Income test: The benefit is reduced by NZ$0.70 for each dollar of gross earned income above NZ$80 a week.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted annually on April 1, according to changes in the consumer price index for the previous calendar year.

Paid parental leave: 100% of the employee's last weekly earnings is paid for up to 14 weeks. The benefit is paid to one parent or shared between both parents if they are both eligible.

The maximum benefit is NZ$504.10 of gross earnings a week.

Self-employed persons who earn less than the equivalent of 10 hours a week at the highest adult minimum wage receive the minimum benefit.

The minimum benefit for self-employed persons is NZ$142.50 a week.

Benefit adjustment: The maximum benefit is adjusted annually on July 1, according to the increase in net average ordinary time weekly earnings. Net average ordinary time weekly earnings are determined by the quarterly employment survey published by Statistics New Zealand. The minimum benefit for the self-employed is adjusted annually on July 1, according to the increase in the highest minimum wage.

Workers' Medical Benefits

Free services include inpatient care in public hospitals, maternity care, and most laboratory services. Partial subsidies are provided for general practice visits. Costs for care in a private hospital are not subsidized.

Cost sharing: Partial subsidy for approved prescribed medicines, according to a patient's number of copayments, income, and frequency of use.

Subsequent items are fully subsidized after a patient or family makes 20 copayments of NZ$5 for each item a year.

Low-income families have access to a Community Services Card (CSC) for reduced prescription charges, after hours doctor visits, specialist visits, children's eyeglasses (up to age 15), emergency dental care, travel and lodging support for certain hospitalizations, and home help.

Persons who do not qualify for a CSC can obtain a High Use Health Card (HUHC) if they have made 12 or more doctor's visits in the last 12 months. The HUHC is for individual use only and is not income tested. For HUHC cardholders, visits are subsidized at NZ$15 a visit for adults aged 18 or older, and NZ$20 a visit for children aged 6 to 17.

No reimbursement is provided for dental treatment, physical therapy, or work-related injuries

The Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) subsidizes treatment for accident-related injuries.

Dependents' Medical Benefits

Medical benefits for dependents are the same as those for workers. Free general practitioner care is provided for children up to age 6 (up to age 13 as of 2015); free dental care for children up to age 18. No reimbursement for children's eyeglasses (aged 5 or younger).

Special subsidies are provided for low-income families or those who need intensive medical care.

Work Injury

Regulatory Framework

First law: 1908.

Current law: 2001 (accident compensation), implemented in 2002.

Type of program: Universal and employer-liability (through a public carrier) system.

Coverage

Work injury: Citizens and residents of New Zealand.

Nonwork injury: Citizens, residents of, and temporary visitors to New Zealand.

Source of Funds

Insured person

Work injury: None.

Nonwork injury: Contribution rates are set each year based on the actual lifetime cost of injuries, according to a schedule in law.

Self-employed person

Work injury: Contribution rates are set each year based on the actual lifetime cost of injuries, according to a schedule in law.

Nonwork injury: Contribution rates are set each year based on the actual lifetime cost of injuries, according to a schedule in law.

Employer

Work injury: Contribution rates are set each year based on experience ratings and injury risk groups, which take into account both the industry and the employer's performances in injury prevention and returning employees to work.

Nonwork injury: None.

Government

Work injury: Contributes as an employer.

Nonwork injury: The cost of the program for nonearners is financed from general revenues.

Qualifying Conditions

Work injury benefits: There is no minimum qualifying period. Must be substantially unable to perform usual work as a result of the work injury or occupational disease. A medical practitioner must provide a medical certificate. For noise-induced hearing loss, must be assessed with at least a 6% injury-related loss.

Nonwork-related injury benefits: There is a one-week waiting period.

Temporary Disability Benefits

Temporary disability benefit (weekly compensation): 80% of the worker's average weekly earnings in the period before the incapacity began is paid until he or she is able to return to work.

For work-related personal injuries, the employer pays for the first week of incapacity. The benefit is paid for as long as a certified incapacity lasts or up to age 65 (when New Zealand superannuation is paid). Claimants aged 65 or older who are eligible for weekly compensation can receive the benefit for up to 12 months after the date they were first eligible for weekly compensation or the date they became eligible for New Zealand superannuation, whichever is later.

The minimum weekly benefit for incapacitated full-time workers is NZ$456 (gross).

The maximum weekly benefit is NZ$1,847.23 (gross).

Earnings test: The benefit is reduced by one dollar for each dollar of earnings above 20% of the worker's weekly earnings.

Employers may make an additional weekly payment to increase the employee's income during incapacity to the level of his or her normal wage. The additional payment is exempt from the benefit reduction.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are increased annually according to changes in the labor cost index.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Permanent disability pension

Lump-sum payment: A lump sum of NZ$3,345.06 (assessed incapacity of 10%) to NZ$133,802.28 (assessed incapacity of at least 80%) is paid. Assessment for entitlement begins two years after the injury occurred or occupational disease began, or once the condition stabilizes, whichever is earlier.

Independence allowance: NZ$191.36 (assessed incapacity of 10%) to NZ$1,148.81 (assessed incapacity of at least 80%) is paid quarterly (nontaxable) for any long-term incapacity resulting from an injury suffered before April 1, 2002. There is no limit to duration. The allowance is paid in addition to other cash assistance.

Medical practitioners assess the degree of incapacity.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits may increase if the initial assessed level of incapacity increases.

Workers' Medical Benefits

Medical benefits

Medical care: A co-payment may be required for medical care and physical rehabilitation, according to a schedule in law. The worker pays for the full cost of benefits that are not specified. The full cost of elective surgery performed by a contracted provider is fully funded; partially funded if performed by a non-contracted provider.

Social rehabilitation: Attendant care, household help, childcare, assistive devices and appliances, modification of motor vehicles and residence, and travel-related costs are provided if there is an assessed need.

Vocational rehabilitation: Provided for up to three years (may be extended) to those entitled to compensation for loss of earnings and potential earnings.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension

Spouse's benefit: 60% of the deceased's weekly earnings is paid. The benefit is paid for up to five years, the date the deceased's youngest child reaches age 18, or the date that the spouse no longer cares for the deceased's children younger than age 18 or any other eligible dependent, whichever is latest. (The spouse can choose between survivor benefits under superannuation or work injury.)

Orphan's benefit: 20% of the deceased's weekly earnings is paid to an orphan up to age 18 (age 21 if a full-time student; no limit if disabled, dependent on the deceased, and with earnings lower than a set amount); 40% for a full orphan.

Other dependents: 20% of weekly benefit the deceased would have received for a total incapacity is paid to other dependents with average weekly earnings over a 12 month-period lower than the minimum full-time earner rate.

All survivor benefits combined must not exceed 80% of the deceased's weekly earnings, up to a maximum.

Survivor's grant: A lump sum of NZ$6,455.40 is paid to a spouse; NZ$3,227.72 to each child younger than age 18 or other dependent.

Child care: NZ$137.27 a week is paid for one child; NZ$82.35 each a week for two children; NZ$192.18 a week for three or more children.

Funeral grant: A lump sum of up to NZ$6,021.11 is paid to a named survivor.

Administrative Organization

Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment (<http://www.mbie.govt.nz>) oversees the program and legislation.

New Zealand Treasury (<http://www.treasury.govt.nz>) monitors the performance of the Accident Compensation Corporation.

Type of program: Universal and social assistance system.

Note: It is possible to be eligible for more than one tax credit and allowance.

Coverage

Residents of New Zealand.

Source of Funds

Insured person: None.

Self-employed person: None.

Employer: None.

Government: The total cost is financed from general revenues.

Qualifying Conditions

Family allowances

Sole parent support: Paid to a single parent aged 19 or older with a dependent child younger than age 14. Must be available for part-time work or make preparations to return to work, depending on the age of the parent's dependent children. Must have at least two years of continuous residency.

Jobseeker support for sole parents: Paid to a single parent aged 19 or older with a dependent child aged 15 to 17. Must be available for full-time work. Must have at least two years of continuous residency.

Emergency maintenance allowance: Paid to single parents who are ineligible for the sole parent support, jobseeker support, supported living payment, youth payment, or young parent payment, and who would experience hardship without the benefit.

Child disability allowance: Paid to the principal caregiver of a dependent child with a serious disability. The benefit is not income or asset tested.

Unsupported child's benefit: The child must be younger than age 18 and financially dependent on the caregiver, and the child's parents (biological, adoptive or step) are unable to care for him or her. The primary caregiver must be aged 18 or older, expect to care for the child for at least 12 months. Must be a citizen or permanent resident of New Zealand with at least two years of residency.

Young parent payment (income tested): Parents aged 16 to 18 with a dependent child or dependent children. Parents aged 16 to 17 must be single and in exceptional circumstances (neither living with nor supported by parents or guardians), must have been married or in a recognized union but are no longer in a relationship, or must be single and living at home or financially supported by parents or guardians with earnings below a certain threshold; parents age 18 must be single. Must be undertaking or available to undertake full-time secondary or tertiary studies, approved training, or approved work-based learning; or must be exempt from this condition due to personal circumstances. Must have at least two years of continuous residency.

For persons with less than two years of residency, a benefit may be paid in cases of hardship. For nonpermanent residents, an income- and asset-tested emergency benefit may be paid in cases of hardship.

Youth payment (income tested): Aged 16 to 17, single and in exceptional circumstances (neither living with nor supported by parents or another guardian), married or in a recognized union, or divorced or separated. Must be undertaking or available to undertake full-time secondary or tertiary studies, approved training, or approved work-based learning; or must be exempt from this condition due to personal circumstances. Must have at least two years of continuous residency.

For citizens or permanent residents with less than two years of residency, a benefit may be paid in cases of hardship. For nonpermanent residents, an income- and asset-tested emergency benefit may be paid in cases of hardship.

Family tax credit: Paid to families with dependent children aged 17 or younger (age 18 if a student). The principal caregiver or the child must meet a family income test and a residence test.

In-work tax credit: Paid to families with dependent children aged 17 or younger (age 18 if a student). A two-parent family must work jointly more than 30 hours a week; 20 hours a week for single parents. Parents receiving paid parental leave or accident compensation for an injury suffered after January 1, 2006, can meet the work hours test. No eligible parent may receive an income-tested benefit, a student allowance, or a parental allowance under the War Pensions Act 1954. The principal caregiver or the child must meet a family income test and a residence test.

Minimum family tax credit: Paid to working families with dependent children aged 17 or younger (age 18 if a student) with annual income less than NZ$26,419 (net). A two-parent family must be working jointly more than 30 hours a week; 20 hours a week for single parents. Parents receiving paid parental leave or accident compensation for an injury suffered after January 1, 2006, can meet the work hours test. No eligible parent may receive an income-tested benefit or a student allowance. The principal caregiver or the child must meet a residence test.

Parental tax credit: Paid to working families on the birth of a child for eight weeks. The credit is paid to families who qualify for the family tax credit, the in-work tax credit, or both, but not to parents claiming paid parental leave, or receiving superannuation or income-tested benefits. The principal caregiver or the child must meet a residence test.

Family Allowance Benefits

Family allowances
